During this time, Henry intently focuses on his dream of conquering Panama, known as the "Cup of Gold," and its famed resident, La Santa Roja, supposedly the most beautiful woman in the world. He becomes obsessed with finding the woman so shrewd, so beautiful that "all men fell before her as heathen kneel before the sun" (86).

Cup of Gold - Plot Synopsis | Steinbeck in the Schools ...

John Steinbeck's first novel, Cup of Gold: A Life of Sir Henry Morgan, Buccaneer, with Occasional Reference to History, is a work of historical fiction about the adventures of swashbuckler Sir Henry Morgan. Steinbeck intertwines some historical fact, as the title suggests, with a variety of literary conventions like medieval allegory, romantic adventure, and stark naturalism to retell the tale of Wales' famous Seventeenth Century "privateer."
