This second great Dispensation is composed of three distinct ages—each progressing onward in God's Plan. The first, Age D, the Patriarchal Age, is the time when God dealt with the fathers of faith—Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Next was the Jewish Age, E, which began at the death of Jacob. God then recognized the posterity of Jacob's twelve sons, the twelve tribes of Israel, as "My people."

Many have tried to tell Bible stories as historical fiction. But I have attempted to tell the entire story of the universe, starting with the Bible and integrating history and chronology, legend, and ancient Talmudic tradition, along with a good deal of speculation. My story begins before time, and continues past the ages of time into eternity.
