This is the first of a series of three volumes intended to present a complete gazetteer of all the 400 or more church buildings known to have existed in the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem between the capture of the city in 1099 and the fall of Acre in 1291. Volume I forms the first part of the general topographical coverage, and includes individual descriptions and historical discussion of the sites A-K. Chapters are arranged thematically and consider the rise of rural tourism in France and the preservation, display, and enactment of Breton culture in its most visible locations: the natural landscape of Brittany, Breton

Beyond those interested in the history of French tourism, this study will also be invaluable to historians and social scientists concerned with understanding the dynamics involved in the emergence of mass tourism, its causes and consequences in particular locales in the present as well as in the past.
