Young people want to go to college for the big social, coming of age experience but if you don't come from a wealthy family, I say skip your fantasies of the college fun experience that you got from movies, get a job while you go to either a community college or take online courses for the first two years then attend a local college live in the flesh. When I was young, college was cheap and fun. I think the atmosphere has changed. It's more expensive now. Pick a practical major then focus on getting that degree as quickly as possible to start making money. You can focus on your artsy explorations anytime. It's all about making money. The biggest thing in life for most people aside from personal relationships and health is to earn a living. This comes down to four things: 1.) Education 2.) Finding a job, keeping it 3.) Starting and running a business 4.) State of being, are you capable of being out there, around people These are all huge areas. I cover them all somewhere through all the books I've written because I know the real world and I know it's not the glittery world you can see on TV at anytime but a lot of people, especially young ones, don't know this then when the real world hits them straight-on for the first time, it's like a spear piercing through their being. Life is hard. I wrote the "People Power" books because I lived a fun, easy life until a few tragedies hit then I knew anybody can end up sick, unemployed, feeling hopeless, uninspired and destitute.
