The future of Israel and Palestine

The remnant of Israel will see their Messiah returning, as we see in Revelation 19:11, when Christ comes through the black clouds of the apocalypse of Armageddon. All Israel, that is all believing Israel, will be saved. A remnant will be saved to live into the Millennium. That's basically Israel's future as I see it from a biblical viewpoint.

Then, in Romans 11, Paul defends God ' s integrity by insisting that Israel has a future. Specifically, he says that Israel as a people-group, a corporate or national entity, will be saved. Paul argues that while God never promised to save every last citizen of Israel, he did, nevertheless, promise to save Israel. Israel ' s Corporate Salvation " Israel " in Romans 11 is a corporate, people-group-identifying label.
